Re: Intellivision et al. v. Microsoft Corp.
Civil Action No. 07-CV-4079(JGK)

Dear Judge Koeltl:

I am counsel for plaintiffs in the above-captioned action. I am writing to request a one-day extension (until Saturday) to reply to the December 14, 2010 letter to the Court from Microsoft's counsel, Steven L. Holley, Esq. The deadline for filing the reply letter is today. Microsoft has not consented to this request. I will likely be able to file the reply letter by today's deadline but seek a one-day extension in the event I am unable to do so by midnight tonight.

Mr. Holley's associate, Nuri Frame, Esq., emailed a copy of Mr. Holley's December 14, 2010 letter to me. However, Mr. Frame's email did not appear in my email inbox and appears to have been recognized as spam. As a result, I was not alerted to the existence of the December 14 letter until approximately 4:00 pm today when I received and reviewed Mr. Holley's reply letter of today's date (which references his December 14 letter). Again, I can likely file the reply letter today but seek a one-day extension in the event I am unable to do so by midnight.

Respectfully submitted,

Bruce D. Katz

Application denied. The purpose of the schedule was to encourage simultaneous filing.

So ordered.

12/17/10.
